Manitouwadge Community Relief Funding Terms & Conditions

On June 10, 2020, Mayor and Council for the Township of Manitouwadge passed a motion to provide financial assistance to every resident of Manitouwadge to assist them with increased costs of managing their finances during the COVID-19 pandemic in 2020.

Each resident is entitled to receive a one-time payment of $100 to be issued in $20 denominations of "Manitouwadge Extreme Dollars". Extreme dollars can be used at any participating business in the Township (see participating businesses below) . Eligible residents must have been living in Manitouwadge as of the date the motion was passed by Council (June 10, 2020).

Residents must confirm their civic address by providing a copy of one of the following with their application:

1. Valid driver's license identifying the civic address; or,
2. Current tax or utility bill identifying the civic address.

Starting August 1, 2020, residents can complete the application online at <https://mymanitouwadge.ca/> Registration is required to use the MyManitouwadge page and to complete the application online. Additionally, residents can complete the attached application form or download the application form at www.manitouwadge.ca and submit it via email, mail or drop box at the following addresses no later than August 31, 2020:

By email: covidrelief@manitouwadge.ca

By mail: Township of Manitouwadge
PO Box 910
Manitouwadge, ON P0T 2C0

By DropBox: 1 Mississauga Drive (beside the staff entrance)

Residents will be contacted by email and/or phone to schedule a time for pick up. Only the applicant is required to be present for the pick up of the Extreme Dollars and identification matching the name and civic address provided in the application will be required to be shown.
